

Cardinal Gas Storage ("Cardinal") along with its affiliates, Arcadia Gas Storage, Cadeville Gas Storage, Monroe Gas Storage, and Perryville Gas Storage, continue to diligently monitor the news and follow the government's guidance related to COVID-19. We greatly appreciate the business each and every customer brings to our team and want to continue providing unrivaled natural gas storage services to you. We have maintained operations under our business continuity procedures while taking all the necessary precautions to protect the Cardinal team members in the workplace so that our customers experience top notch service. As a reminder, we have included the appropriate contact information for the Cardinal commercial team as shown below.
