

Transmission Function Employees Job Descriptions

Director - Operations

Directs and leads the operations of pipeline and storage facilities in the US. This position plays a central role in establishing strategic objectives and developing operating plans for pipeline and storage operations. This is a highly specialized position which has the responsibility for serving the pipelines and storage operations as a lead professional regarding management, safety, and environment, reliability, availability, efficiency, operating flexibility, corporate legal compliance and cost control. Maximizes profitability by achieving key objectives.

Director – Commercial Development

Provides project commercial development support for regasification and liquefaction projects being developed by Sempra LNG. This is a highly specialized position which has responsibilities ranging in areas such as commercial, technical, permitting, operations, finance and/or risk related aspects of project development and commercial contract negotiations in the natural gas and/or LNG industry.

Business Operations Manager

Responsible for gas scheduling and leadership over company business functions such as procurement, contract administration, human resources, accounting, short- and long-term forecasts, budgeting and variance analysis, and Sarbanes-Oxley compliance.

Gas Control Manager

Responsible for managing the gas control function for domestic and Mexican pipelines operations. Designs and implements overall gas control structure and organization to meet the business unit's growing demands and project expansion. Participates in the evaluation of energy saving opportunities, provides technical and financial analysis for implementing measurement and verification plans for projects under development. Reports to the Director- Operations.

Gas Asset Optimization Manager

Manages daily and seasonal optimization of Sempra LNG transportation and storage assets. Executes customer transactions that generate fee revenues for the natural gas asset platform. Performs the analysis and valuation of potential opportunities and the strategy of how they fit the overall portfolio.

Senior Gas Controller

Monitors and regulates flow of natural gas throughout distribution system to ensure volume and pressure of gas required for consumers' demands. Adjusts controls to regulate gas flow and pressure through system. Reports to the gas control supervisor.

Gas Controller

Responsible to monitor and regulate flow of natural gas throughout distribution system to ensure volume and pressure of gas required for consumers' and shippers' demands. Reports to the gas control supervisor.

Natural Gas Scheduling Supervisor

Oversees the nomination scheduling and monitors gas transportation on pipeline systems in compliance with contract provisions and the pipeline's tariff, timing and procedures, purchases, sales and storage on pipeline systems in order to minimize transport cost. Reports to natural gas manager.

Natural Gas Scheduler

Nominates schedules and monitors gas transportation on pipeline systems in compliance with contract provisions and the pipeline's tariff, timing and procedures, purchases, sales and storage on pipeline systems in order to minimize transport cost. Reports to managing director.